

THE INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF NURTURE IN EDUCATION

Publications Ethics Statement

Publications Ethics and Malpractice Statement for the International Journal of Nurture in Education

The Journal complies with the Core practices of the Committee on Publication Ethics \(COPE\), and makes a commitment to the highest standards of publishing ethics and practice, overseen by the Research, Evaluation and Ethics sub-group of the Board of Trustees of nurtureuk. Although ethical issues can be referred to this sub-group, it is explained to authors that it is their responsibility to apply ethical standards, such as BERA's code of ethics, to their research. Any allegations of misconduct, complaints and appeals are referred to the sub-group.

Authors are asked to complete a declaration of interest in relation to their submission, if appropriate.

Papers are checked for plagiarism (see Author Guidelines), if thought appropriate by the Editor or reviewers.