The ongoing impact of the National Nurturing School Programme – Update report

Please write a short update report about how your whole school nurturing approach has evolved over the last three years (since your last assessment) including reference to the six principles and the use of the Boxall Profile in your setting.

We are looking for an update about the setting’s continued nurture journey over the last three years, to demonstrate that the main vision and values are firmly embedded across the whole setting and how this has evolved over time, making explicit reference to any development areas contained in the original assessment report. Copy of the original assessment report and final self assessment, to accompany this reassessment application as part of your evidence.

There is no suggested word count, however please be succinct.

Self-Assessment

School
Headteacher/Principal

This self-assessment tool is designed to assess what has continued to be achieved and to provide a basis for further development.

Consider each standard and comment upon the stage of development to inform planning.

This self-assessment tool should be updated annually to track progress, please use different colours for each annual review, using the same form.

If you have moved from establishing to enhancing, please provide evidence with your resubmission and reference this in the evidence reference grid in the application
